Read the given poem and answer the questions that follow by selecting the most appropriate option.

The cardboard shows me how it was
When the two girl cousins went paddling
Each one holding one of my mother's hands,
And she the big girl - some twelve years or so.
All three stood still to smile through their hair
At the uncle with the camera, a sweet face
My mother's, that was before I was born
And the sea, which appears to have changed less
Washed their terribly transient feet.
Some twenty- thirty- years later
She'd laugh at the snapshot.
"See Betty and Dolly," she'd say,
"and look how they dressed us for the beach."
The sea holiday was her past, mine is her laughter.
Both wry with the laboured ease of loss
Now she's has been dead nearly as many years as that girl lived.
And of this circumstance there is nothing to say at all,
Its silence silences.
