Cloze Test:

Minnu is a sweet, lovable and beautiful girl, aged six years. She is an adorable kid as she obeys every word of the elders. Minnu's parents loved her for her amazing behaviour.

One day her mother took her to grocery shopping. As they passed the shops, Minnu noted a cute plastic pearl necklace in dazzling pink! She asked her mother to buy her the necklace. Her mother told her it cost a few pennies and she asked her to do some chores, so that for every completed work Minnu will get some money and she could buy the pink necklace.

Minnu prepared a to-do list and assisted her mom with all the chores. Her mom was so happy and she paid enough money to buy the pink necklace. Minnu happily purchased the desired necklace and wore it just everywhere, every time, except while taking bath. Her mom told that her neck would turn pink and the pearls would lose its sheen if she wore it while bathing.

She wore it even while sleeping. Minnu was known for her kindness and respect to elders. Her dad wanted to play with her. Her daddy used to tell her bed time stories frequently.

One day, after completing a story, her dad asked how much she loved him. Minnu replied, 'you know how much I love you'. Dad asked, 'Then give me your pearl necklace please!'

Minnu replied, 'Please daddy, I love you so much but please don't ask pearls. I will give you the pink Barbie which you bought me a month ago.'

Dad replied, 'Fine sweetheart.' and left. After a few days, the same conversation was held between Minnu and her dad. Again, Minnu refused to give her pearl necklace and instead asked her dad to take her pet. Dad kissed her and left with smile. This conversation was repeated several times. One day, she slept while her dad was reading her a story. As he was about to leave her room, Minnu in her sleep, said, 'Here dad, please don't take the pearl necklace.' She was holding the necklace in her hands. Her dad with a big smile gently without disturbing her sleep, took off the pearl necklace from her hand. The next moment, she woke up and asked, 'Dad what are you doing?'

Dad replied, 'darling your pearl necklace had fallen on the floor, I was just picking!'

Dad, by hiding the plastic necklace taken by Minnu's hand, immediately opened the jewel box placed near her bed and handed over the real and precious pink pearl necklace to Minnu, and said, 'Sweetheart, here is your necklace!'

She replied, 'Thank you dad!' Minnu's dad had been trying for a long time to make her give up the cheap pearl necklace for the real one. Finally, she gave-up fake and grabbed the real one. God wants us to give up all those fake and cheap things we hold very precious in our life. It can be habits, hatreds, harming relationships, activities, negative thoughts, etc. He will provide us genuine things to give up the fake!

One day a professor entered his classroom, and asked his students to prepare for a surprise test. They all waited anxiously at their desk for the exam to begin. The professor handed out the exams with the text facing down, as usual. Once he had handed them all out, he asked the class to turn over the papers. To everyone's surprise, there were no questions – just a black dot in the center of the sheet of paper. The professor seeing the expression on everyone's faces, told them the following: "I want you to write about what you see there" the students, confused, got started on the inexplicable task. At the end of the class, the professor took all the papers, and started reading each one of them out loud, in front of all the students. All of them with no exception, defined the black dot, trying to explain its position in the center of the sheet.

After all had been read, the classroom silent, the professor started to explain: "I'm not going to grade you on this, i just wanted to give you something to think about. no one wrote about the white part of the paper. everyone focused on the black dot – and the same happens in our lives. We have a white piece of paper to observe and enjoy, but we always focus on the dark spots. Our life is a gift given to us with love and care, and we always have reasons to celebrate – nature renewing itself everyday, our friends around us, the job that provides our livelihood, the miracles we see every day... However, we insist on focusing on the dark spot – the health issues, the lack of money, the complicated relationship with a family member, the disappointment with a friend. The dark spots are very small when compared to everything we have in our lives, but they are the ones that pollute our mind. Be happy and live a life positively!
